Policy Objective:

This policy aims to provide financial assistance to pursue higher education programs.

Eligibility	This policy will be applicable to all officers of M&M Ltd.
Courses	Courses leading to diploma/degree/short term courses (online/hybrid/physical)
Financial Assistance	- The organization will bear 90% of the total course fees or ₹5 lakhs, whichever is less. This support may be extended up to ₹10 lakhs with the approval of the CHRO in exceptional cases. - A 2-year bond period after completion of the course will be applicable to the employee if the reimbursed amount is higher than ₹1 lakh. In the event of non-compliance of bond or breach of policy conditions, the amount will be recovered on a pro-rata basis.
Mechanism	- An officer is eligible for only one course in a given financial year. - The course details must be shared with respective manager (DH & above) and Business HR for approval, basis business relevance. 50% of the course fees will be reimbursed on production of relevant receipts. The balance amount will be paid only after completion of the course. - For long duration programs (e.g., PHD) approval will be given only on a case-to-case basis. - Programs offered by unrecognized institutes would not be considered under this policy.
Budget ownership	- Each Sector HR Head must take a provisional budget for education assistance. Assistance will be given on a first-come first-serve basis. Once the budget is exhausted, no further cases will be considered in that year. - In case of any deviation in the process, the Sector HR Head will be the final approver.
Time Concession	Lecture timings must be outside working hours.
Tax implications	The income tax liability for an officer availing of this facility will be applicable under the prevailing income tax rules. Since the government may change these rules from time to time, it will be the responsibility of the officer availing the facility to ascertain the liability before using this facility.
